

PRAIRIE LOVE

Discussion Guide

1. The vagrant proceeds to read his frozen discovery's love letters after rescuing him. He also listens to relationship tapes. Do you think he's desperate for love or just a cease from loneliness altogether?
2. The girl gets immediately thrown into the vagrant's lifestyle after leaving prison. Why do you think she's comfortable with this? Is she just happy to be out of jail? Is this a normal lifestyle for the area they live in? Other reasons?
3. What do you make of the dead deer that mysteriously disappears and reappears? Do you think this is symbolic of anything?
4. Other than comedic elements, what other elements exist in this film?
5. The girl explains that Prairie Love is more of a concept of not being left alone. How is this theme of companionship important in the film?

